

AMET Webinar Series

Working with ITE students in the current context

This webinar series follows up the recent AMET webinar and will provide tutors with opportunities to discuss issues raised previously. Most of the time will be given over to small group discussion in breakout rooms.

Location: You will receive a link to a Zoom online meeting

Who are these webinars for? Primary and secondary mathematics tutors, working in HEIs and other ITE settings

Webinar 1: Thursday 6th August 9.30 to 10.30 *How can we simulate practical experience through online teacher education? This is a response to comments that some placements will be delayed, or concerns that the classroom will be so altered that it does not present typical conditions.
